About 2 Queen East

2 Queen Street East is located in Toronto's financial core, and the "Downtown Yonge" area of the city at the corner of Queen Street East and Yonge Street. The project is a 20-storey office tower completed in 2003 and contains 463,790 rentable square feet of office space, with retail shops located on the ground floor. The building is directly linked to the TTC Queen St. Subway Station. The building is also linked to the PATH underground pedestrian system.

2 Queen is distinctive from an aesthetic and technical perspective. Its unique design incorporates the past and present, integrating a historic 1910 bank branch with the modern conveniences of a premier office property. It is equipped with leading-edge technology and architectural finishes of the highest quality setting it apart from neighbouring buildings.
